

On Tuesday 16th December, St. Paul's had a Polar Express Day which was packed full with of activities throughout the day all linked to the lovely story of the Polar Express. The children and staff all came to school in their pyjamas and Mrs Cole set the scene by visiting each class to clip their tickets wearing a fabulous train conductor outfit for the occasion! The children also enjoyed a hot chocolate provided by our kind School Association.

